

Living in the Lap of Luxury in Quintessential San Francisco

The Fairmont brand has long been established as the preferred flag of a luxury hotel... first-class service, five-star restaurants and high-end amenities are keystone in each and every Fairmont property around the world. All that still rings true at the new Fairmont Heritage Place at Ghirardelli Square in San Francisco. JMA Ventures, LLC owners of San Francisco's Ghirardelli Square, have taken its historic property and added every luxurious aspect that is hallmark of the prestigious Fairmont brand while remaining steadfast to the essence of what is quintessential to the San Francisco experience. Each of the 53 one and two bedroom residences, which all include kitchens, living rooms and dining areas, is a perfectly balanced marriage of classic and modern style. The original architecture of brickwork and exposed beams all date back to the mid 1800's and compliment the impeccable 21st century decor. Fractional residences are currently for sale so if interested people can actually purchase a 1/10 ownership in the property. However, you can also reserve rooms for short stays as if booking a hotel room. Located steps away from the city's most popular tourist attractions, a two-bedroom residence at the Fairmont is an ideal place for a fun-filled family vacation. Yet, the breathtaking views of the bay and each of the accommodations meticulous attention to lush, luxuriant and desirable detail, make the property ideal for a romantic rendezvous. So, whether you spend the day out on the bay or behind closed doors with your BFF, the Fairmont Heritage Place in San Francisco will definitely provide you with the ideal spot to leave your heart.
